The President's Message

There are several Lions events within the next few months that merit our interest. I'm speaking of those events sponsored by Lions District 22C or by Lions Multiple District 22; and which are open to all Damascus Lions. First upcoming is the Lion District 22-C Night on April 2, 2022, starting at 5:00 PM and held in Waldorf, MD.

There's a social hour, followed by dinner and a program by a past International Director. We hope to fill a table of 10 Damascus Lions; but the more the merrier. Bobbie and I plan to attend, and we are happy to offer a ride to others.

Second is our Multiple 22 Convention on April 21 through April 24 (Thursday evening Social through Sunday lunch), held in Gettysburg, PA. Representatives from all five districts in MD22 will be attending. One can pick and choose what activities of the convention one wishes to attend. I plan to be there.

Third, on June 30, we have the opportunity to participate, with other 22-C clubs, in the National Memorial Day Parade in Washington, DC.

Finally, on August 12-13 (Friday evening through Saturday evening), there will be a special celebration of the 100th Anniversary of Multiple District 22. This will be held at the Delta Hotels by Marriott in Hunt Valley, MD (not far from the northwest portion of the Baltimore beltway). Some cool activities include Special Olympics, a tour of the Wilmer Eye Institute, dancing to the Hubcaps, and other cool stuff.

More details are available on each of these events.

Perhaps we can discuss them further at our March 1 dinner meeting. See you then.

SOME ST. PATRICK'S DAY HUMOR

An Irish priest is driving along a country road when a policeman pulls him over. He immediately smells alcohol on the priest's breath and notices an empty wine bottle in the car.

He says: "Have you been drinking?"

"Just water," says the priest.

The cop replies: "Then why do I smell wine?"

The priest looks at the bottle and says: "Good Lord! He's done it again!"

An Irishman is struggling to find a parking space.

"Lord," he prayed. "I can't stand this. If you open a space up for me, I swear I'll give up the Guinness and go to mass every Sunday."

Suddenly, the clouds part and the sun shines on an empty parking spot. Without hesitation, the Irishman says: "Never mind, I found one!"

Billy stops Paddy in Dublin and asks for the quickest way to Cork.

Paddy says: "Are you on foot or in the car?"

Billy replies: "In the car."

"Well that's the quickest way," says Paddy.

"Is that the Ballycashel Echo?" asks Mick.

"How much would it be to put an ad in your paper?"

"Five pounds an inch," a woman replies. "Why? What are you selling?"

"A ten-foot ladder," said Mick before slamming the phone down.

Paddy goes into a bar and orders seven shots of tequila and one Guinness. The barman lines up shots and goes to get the Guinness.

When he comes back with the pint, all seven shots are gone.

The barman says: "Wow! You sure drank those fast."

Paudie explains: "You would drink fast too if you had what I have."

The barman asks: "What do you have?"

The guy reaches into his pocket and says: "Fifty cents!"

An Irishman goes into a bar in America and orders three whiskeys. The barman asks: "Would it be better for if I put all three shots in one glass?"

The Irishman replies: "No! I have two other brothers back at home, so every time I come into a pub, I order a shot for them both."

The following week, the Irishman orders just two whiskeys.

The barman asks: "Did something happen one of your brothers?" "Oh no," replies the Irishman. "I just decided to quit drinking!"
